Written notice shall be given at least 15 days prior to the commencement of such leaves. In emergencies, the Employer will reasonably consider approving applications made with less than 15 days' notice.

(b) The Union recognizes that operational needs will be a factor when approving such leaves of absence and that the Employer may refuse a leave of absence to ensure that there will be sufficient employees remaining at the casino in each classification. Otherwise such leaves of absence will not be unreasonably denied.

In the event that any amount to be deducted is changed from the amount specified in the assignment of wages form signed by the employees, the Employer can require the employees to sign new forms reflecting the new amounts to be deducted prior to making such deductions.

(e) The Union recognizes and agrees that the Employer's obligation to deduct such dues is expressly restricted to make only such deductions as are permitted by law, and as are authorized by a valid assignment of wages form executed by each employee.

(f) Upon resignation, layoff, or termination for cause, the Employer will deduct the current month's dues from the employee's final paycheque and remit it as per (c) above.

Lists will be maintained with updates as necessary.

(b) The Employer and the Union agree to establish a labour management committee comprised of up to five employer representatives and up to five union representatives, and a staff representative. The Committee shall meet at the request of either party, but not more than once per month, or less than once every two months, at a place and time to be mutually agreed.

(c) The Committee meetings shall be co-chaired by one employer and one union representative. The purpose of the meetings shall be to exchange information of mutual interest, to review administrative matters arising from this agreement, and to maintain effective union/employer relations. Any discussions of grievances, as defined by this agreement, shall be strictly on a "without prejudice" basis.

- (2) the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement.
- (b) The procedure for resolving the grievance shall be in the grievance procedure in this article.

8.2 Step 1

- (a) The first step of the grievance procedure requires every effort to be made to settle the dispute informally, with the designated excluded manager. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have their shop steward present at such a discussion. Where the aggrieved employee is a shop steward, they shall not act as a shop steward in respect of their own grievance but shall submit the grievance through another shop steward or union staff representative. The Employer's Step 1 designate will be the designated supervisor.
- (b) Upon presentation of the grievance form, the steward and the designated supervisor will meet to understand the nature of the dispute, investigate the dispute and reach an outcome. The outcome will be stated on the grievance form.

8.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Clause 8.4, must do so no later than 21 days after the date.

8.5 Time Limit to Reply at Step 2

- (a) Within 14 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the excluded manager designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2 and the shop steward shall meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) The excluded manager designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2 shall reply in writing to an employee's grievance directly to the union staff representative within 21 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2.

- (c) Where the grievance concerns a disciplinary matter, the reply shall include a report of the Step 2 meeting and the results of investigations carried out by the Employer with regard to the facts and nature of the grievance. The report shall not be introduced as evidence at any arbitration proceeding.
- (d) Investigative findings made by the Union that are relevant to the circumstances that gave rise to the grievance, shall be made available to the Employer.

8.6 Failure to Act

A grievance shall commence and proceed through the grievance procedure within the time limits provided; otherwise it shall be deemed abandoned. The time limits may be extended by mutual consent of the parties whereas the same must be in writing. However, neither party will be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance. Requests for the time limit extension shall not be unreasonably denied.

8.7 Time Limits to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, and pursuant to Article 9 – Arbitration Procedure, the President of the Union, or their designate, if he/she chooses to pursue the matter at arbitration inform the Employer of said intention within:

- (a) 30 days after the Employer's Step 2 response has been received, or
- (b) 30 days after the Employer's Step 2 response was due.

8.8 Administrative Provisions

- (a) Replies to grievances at Step 2 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by certified mail, courier, facsimile or email.
- (b) Grievances, replies and notification shall be deemed to have been presented on the date on which they were verifiably transmitted, and received on the date they were delivered.

8.9 Dismissal or Suspension Grievances

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, rejection on probation, suspension greater than 20 days or suspension for just cause pending investigation, the grievance may be filed directly at arbitration within 21 days of the due date on which the dismissal, rejection on probation, or suspension occurred, or within 21 days of the employee receiving such notice.
- (b) Where a dispute arises from other suspensions, the grievance may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within 21 days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within 21 days of the employee receiving such notice.

8.10 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, employer representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.
- (b) In the event that, after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.
- (c) Where an employee has filed a complaint with the Employment Standards Branch, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned unless the complaint is withdrawn, in writing, within 45 days of the complaint being filed with the Employment Standards Branch.

(d) Notwithstanding (b) above, an employee who has filed a complaint with the Human Rights Tribunal shall not have their grievance deemed abandoned through the filing of the complaint.

8.11 Policy Grievance

(a) Where either party to this agreement disputes the application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed between the parties within 30 days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 9 – Arbitration Procedure.

(b) Unless agreed by the parties, this article shall not be used by the Union to initiate a grievance directly affecting an employee or group of employees where such employees themselves could otherwise initiate a grievance through the grievance procedure. This provision shall not be utilized to circumvent any mandatory provision of the grievance procedure.

8.12 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an arbitrator shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.13 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing and will not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

The other side must provide a substantial response (the reasons for not agreeing with a proposed fact must be stated and, if applicable an alternate proposed fact proposed) to the proposed agreed statement of facts and provide any reliance documents 15 days prior to the hearing. The parties shall make every effort to agree on facts not in dispute.

- (j) The parties agree to minimize the use of legal authorities during their arguments.
- (k) The Arbitrator shall render a decision within two working days of the arbitration hearing.

The parties acknowledge that assistance may be sought for the resolution of grievances through Sections 87, 104 and 105 of the Labour Relations Code, British Columbia.

ARTICLE 10 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

10.1 Burden of Proof

In cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just (and reasonable) cause shall rest with the Employer, other than where an accepted reverse onus applies at law. Discipline for probationary employees is subject to the provisions of Article 10.7.

10.2 Dismissal, Suspension and Discipline

- (a) Employees can only be disciplined or discharged with just and reasonable cause.

- (b) The Employer agrees that if the Employer chooses to implement verbal warnings, written discipline, suspension or discharge on an employee, a shop steward will be present unless the employee specifically requests otherwise.
- (c) In the event that an employee is discharged for just and reasonable cause, the union staff representative will be notified of the dismissal. Such notification will be in writing.
- (d) Written reasons for the suspension or discipline will be provided to the employee and to the Union.
- (e) The Employer has the right to suspend an employee pending an investigation where the Employer has determined that based on the severity of the issue in question and the information immediately available to the Employer, the employee's continued presence in the workplace constitutes a serious and immediate concern to the Employer's legitimate interests.
 - (1) The Employer will contact the employee to commence the investigation within 72 hours of the suspension pending investigation.
 - (2) Where the Employer determines such a concern does not exist, the Employer can assign the employee or employees to closer supervision or other work which is reasonably available while the investigation is being conducted. In either case, the Employer commits to conduct such an investigation as expeditiously as possible.

10.3 Right to Have Union Representative Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have their shop steward present at any discussion with a designated manager which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a designated manager intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the designated manager shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their shop steward of their choice, providing this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve discipline.
- (b) A shop steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and have a staff representative present at any discussion with a designated manager which the shop steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the shop steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.
- (c) An employee shall have the right to have their shop steward present at any discussion with a designated manager. Where the Employer intends to meet with a member as a result of a concern related to injury or illness issues, providing this does not result in an undue delay of the meeting.

10.4 Limitation on Holding Discipline Against Employees

- (a) Any and all disciplinary action recorded against an employee shall automatically be removed from the employee's file after six months, provided the employee has been available for work and provided there has been no further infraction of a similar nature. Should there be a second infraction of a similar nature within the six month time period, a new six month time period begins and the employee is assessed at the second level of disciplinary action. For every additional infraction of a similar nature, a new six month period will commence. Files will be kept in a secure area and will only be accessible to designated personnel.
- (b) Notwithstanding the above, the Employer may, subject to the severity of any infraction of a similar or different nature, escalate the discipline to the appropriate level.

10.5 Performance Appraisals

- (a) Appraisals used for the purpose of evaluating an employee's ability to complete a trial period in a new position will be prepared by the employee's immediate supervisor on any given shift. The employee will be allowed to read the appraisals to determine where improvements may be necessary to meet the Employer's requirements. The appraisal will then be forwarded to an excluded manager.
- (b) Any summary or summaries of the daily performance appraisals in (a) above may be prepared by an excluded manager or immediate supervisor. Any decisions made regarding the successful completion, extension or trial period will be made by the excluded manager. Any decision on an employee's suitability must be made before the expiration of the trial period. A copy of the summary appraisal will be placed in the employee's personnel file.
- (c) Where the Employer conducts an appraisal inclusive of those noted in (a) and (b) above, the employee shall be given copies of any such appraisal along with all related documents and shall be given sufficient opportunity after the interview to read, review and ask questions about the appraisal. Employee involvement in the appraisal process will occur during the employee's hours of work. Upon request, the employee will be given three working days to read and review the appraisal. The appraisal shall provide for the employee's signature in two places; one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the appraisal, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the appraisal. The employee shall sign in one of the places provided. If the employee disagrees with the appraisal they will sign it to show that they have read and understood it and state their reasons why they disagree with it in the comments section. An employee shall, upon request, receive a copy of the appraisal at the time of signing. An appraisal shall not be changed after an employee has signed it, without the knowledge of the employee, and any such changes shall be subject to the grievance procedures of this agreement. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an appraisal unless the signature indicates disagreement with the appraisal. A copy of the completed appraisal must be placed in the employee's personnel file.

10.6 Personnel File

- (a) The employee, the President of the Union or their designate with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file with 48 hours' notice, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in the presence of management. The employee or the President of the Union or their designate shall give the appropriate management reasonable notice prior to having access to such files.
- (b) The Employer will notify an employee of any documents to be placed in their file relating to discipline, potential discipline, absence and attendance. Such documents will be made available to the employee upon request of 48 hours' notice.
- (c) Personnel files will be kept in a locked cabinet.

10.7 Rejection During Probation

- (a) During the probationary period, an employee may be discharged if determined to be unsuitable for continued employment.
- (b) Daily performance appraisals used for the purpose of evaluating an employee's ability to complete probation will be prepared by the employee's immediate supervisor on any given shift. The employee will be allowed to read the appraisals to determine where improvements may be necessary to meet the Employer's requirements. The appraisal will then be forwarded to an excluded manager.

(c) Any summary or summaries of the daily performance appraisals in (b) above may be prepared by an excluded manager or immediate supervisor. Any decisions made regarding the rejection of a probationary period will be made by the excluded manager. Any decision on an employee's suitability must be made before the expiration of the probationary period or trial period. A copy of the summary appraisal will be placed in the employee's personnel file.

10.8 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for work for three consecutive workdays without informing the Employer of the reason for their absence will be presumed to have abandoned their position. An employee shall be afforded an opportunity to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not having informed the Employer.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.1 Seniority Defined

Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service with the Employer, which shall be applied in the following manner:

(a) Service Seniority - means continuous time employed with the Employer from date of hire. Effective upon date of ratification, all current and previously recognized seniority dates will be considered accurate.

(b) Classification Seniority - means an employee's first shift worked after required training in that classification.

For (b) above, if more than one employee is successful in moving to another classification as a result of a single job posting or other reasons allowed within the agreement, those employees will be granted relative seniority in accordance with their service seniority.

11.2 Application of Seniority

(a) Service Seniority Date

The service seniority of each regular employee covered by this agreement will be established after the probationary period after which an employee's service seniority shall be backdated to the employee's date of hire pursuant to Clause 11.1(a). In the event that two or more employees are hired on the same day, they will be ranked for service seniority purposes by chance (card draw or similar).

(b) Classification Seniority

Upon completion of the requirements of (a) above, employees will establish a new classification seniority date when transferring from one classification to another. This new classification seniority date shall apply for hours of work and scheduling purposes in the classification to which they transferred. In the event of a tie, the employee with the highest service seniority will be ranked higher in that classification.

(c) Start Date Retained

Employees transferring from one classification to another shall retain their original service seniority date for severance pay entitlements and as otherwise provided for in this agreement.

(d) Transfers and Seniority

Regular employees will not accrue classification seniority in a classification from which they have transferred. In the event a regular employee who has transferred to another classification does not successfully complete the trial period in the new classification, the accrued time in the new classification would be carried back to their former classification. For example, if a regular employee has two years of classification seniority in a particular classification and transfers to another classification and is not successful during the trial period as described in Clause 12.1(e), any classification seniority accrued will be carried back to their former classification as if accrued there.

(e) Seniority for Casual Employees

(1) Classification seniority for casual employees, with the exception of dealer employees who will have classification seniority by date, will accrue on the basis of hours worked.

(2) When a casual employee becomes a regular employee, seniority hours will be converted to establish the seniority date utilizing the formula set out in the next sentence. Total hours worked as a casual employee will be divided by eight hours per day, 40 hours per week, to convert to number of days, with the resulting days used to count back from the first shift worked as a regular employee. For the purpose of this calculation, fractional remainders will count as a complete day worked.

(3) When a regular employee becomes a casual employee, the reverse of the preceding paragraph will occur.

11.3 Accrual of Seniority

Service and classification seniority will continue to accrue during:

- (a) time lost as a result of occupational illness or injury;
- (b) time lost as a result of non-occupational illness or injury;
- (c) unless otherwise specified, the first three months of leaves of absences which have been granted by the Employer;
- (d) layoff for up to 12 months; or
- (e) time lost as a result of a maternity, parental and adoption leave.

11.4 Loss of Seniority

A regular employee shall lose service and classification seniority in the following circumstances. If they:

- (a) voluntarily leave the employment of the Employer; or
- (b) are discharged for just cause and not reinstated under the terms of this agreement; or
- (c) are recalled to work and does not report to work as provided in Clause 13.5; or
- (d) are laid off for a period in excess of 12 months; or
- (e) upon completion of a two months trial period accepts a position outside the bargaining unit; or
- (f) have their GPEP license revoked permanently by GPEB.

11.5 Work Schedules, Classification Groups and Seniority

- (1) Blackjack, for those who only have Blackjack and have yet to have the company recognize any other game;
- (2) Baccarat, for those who have Baccarat and have yet to have the company recognize any of the following games;
- (3) Pai Gow, for those who have Pai Gow and have yet to have the company recognize any of the following games;

The Employer has recently begun addressing these concerns and will continue to address these concerns by:

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING 6
Temporary Workforce Adjustment

With mutual agreement between the parties in the case of a requirement for renovations, construction or building structure issues, a temporary workforce adjustment will be considered to replace a layoff as per Article 13.

Notice

In the event of a temporary workforce adjustment, regular employees shall be given notice or pay in lieu thereof as per Clause 13.1, in advance of the anticipated start date of the event. Should the start date for the event be delayed, notice will be considered to have been given.

Procedure

The parties will convene a joint workforce adjustment committee. The Committee will convene to review the temporary workforce adjustment plan. The Workforce Adjustment Committee will be responsible for:

1. Ensuring the project meets the criteria of a temporary workforce adjustment;
2. Recommend options for minimizing the disruption to the bargaining unit;
3. Identify the shifts and classifications impacted;
4. Create the workforce adjustment plan and monitor the process;
5. Review changes to the workforce adjustment plan should there be changes to the start date and/or end date of the event;
6. Determine the necessity of an interim shift pick for the duration of the disruption and the necessity of a shift pick at the conclusion of the disruption;
7. Determine the pre-layoff canvass options available to affected employees.

Before a workforce adjustment occurs, the Employer shall canvass employees within the affected classification in order to confirm their selection:

1. Placement on the casual list with no loss of classification seniority or benefits during the term of the workforce adjustment;
2. Opportunity to work in another classification where there is a vacancy, provided they have the skill and ability to do so. Such employees will go into the other classification at the bottom of the classification seniority list and will retain their classification seniority in the original classification;
3. Bump a less senior person within the classification with the same or fewer hours of work;
4. Accept a temporary layoff; or
5. Other voluntary options as agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

Where more than one employee expresses interest in one of the above options, they shall be offered to qualified employees on the basis of classification seniority.

The employee shall confirm his/her selection in writing and such selection is final and binding upon the employee and the Employer subject to this agreement.

Seniority

The parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of continuous service. Therefore, in the event of a Temporary Workforce Adjustment, the shifts impacted will be identified by classification. When the shifts impacted have been identified the parties will, whenever possible, ensure regular employees are impacted in reverse order of their classification seniority within their classification as long as the remaining employees have the skills and abilities to perform the work.

Loss of Hours

Employees who have lost hours of work may temporarily adjust their availability for work under Article 27 and may use other paid time off to offset the lost hours.

Vacancies Within the Department:*

1. New employees shall not be hired if qualified employees are impacted by a workforce adjustment, unless such employees have been given the opportunity offered to those new employees.
2. Temporary vacancies and scheduled casuals hours will be offered to regular employees who have lost hours.
3. When employees are impacted, they may either accept the loss of hours or use their classification seniority to displace the next employee with less classification seniority with the same or similar shift.
4. A displacement cannot result in an increase in hours of work.

*Departments will be defined as Table Games, Food & Beverage (Restaurant and Kitchen classifications), Slots, Cash Cage, Security, Guest Services, and Racebook.

Recall to Schedule

1. Employees will be recalled back to their schedule as soon as the shift resumes.
2. Employees shall be notified of recall by telephone. An employee being recalled must return to work no later than 14 days of receipt of the recall. In the case of illness and injury, the Employer shall have the right to make alternate arrangements until the recalled employee is able to return to work.
3. The employee on layoff shall be responsible for informing the Employer in the event he/she changes his/her phone number and mailing address.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 1Indemnity

(a) The Employer shall indemnify employees from any damages, judgments, legal fees, disbursements and court costs which result from any civil or criminal action or proceeding brought against them arising from any acts or omissions which occurred during or arose out of the proper performance of their duties, including a duty imposed by any statute or regulation. If an action is launched or proceedings take place this indemnification shall include the paying of any sum required in the settlement of such action or proceeding.

At the option of the Employer, the Employer may provide for legal services in the defence of legal proceedings involving the employee (so long as no conflict of interest arises between the Employer and the employee) or pay the legal fees of legal counsel chosen by an employee.

(d) Where an employee is required to defend their professional actions arising out of the proper performance of their duties, in a proceeding before their professional licensing body, the Employer will provide either legal counsel or, at the Employer's option, reimbursement of reasonable legal fees incurred in such defence.

When an employee who has reported suspected Misconduct is notified by the Employer that the investigation into the suspected misconduct is complete, the employee may choose at that point, but not before, to report the suspected misconduct directly to BCLC or GPEB, provided the employee reasonably and honestly believes that the matter has not been properly dealt with by the Employer.

The Employer will consider all reports of suspected misconduct to be provided in confidence, and will disclose such reports only to the extent required to adequately investigate the suspected misconduct or as required by law. Employees who are interviewed during an investigation following a report of suspected misconduct are expected to treat the matter confidentially and refrain from discussing it in the workplace or elsewhere.
