Where complaints of sexual harassment are substantiated, appropriate disciplinary action which may include a verbal warning, written warning, suspension or dismissal are supported and endorsed by the parties.

10.3 Complaint Procedure

For purposes of this article, an employee who believes that they have a complaint founded upon an allegation of discrimination or sexual harassment shall be referred to as the "Complainant". The person who is alleged to have committed an act or acts of discrimination, harassment or sexual harassment shall be referred to as the "Respondent". The "Respondent" may include a School Employee, Contractor, Parent, and/or a Director. Where the Complainant and/or Respondent is an employee covered by this agreement, they may elect to be accompanied by a shop steward at any stage of this procedure.

(a) Informal Resolution

In all cases, the Complainant is encouraged, but not required, to discuss allegations of sexual harassment or discrimination with the alleged Respondent. If the matter is resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction through such discussion, no further steps need be taken.

Alternatively, the Complainant may request the Principal, Vice-Principal or union shop steward assist with resolving a complaint through discussion or other dispute resolution strategies. If the matter is resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction through this process, the matter shall be deemed to be resolved.

(b) Formal Resolution

In cases where no informal resolution is achieved, or where the Complainant elects in their sole discretion not to proceed informally, the Complainant may bring a formal complaint in writing to the Principal. Alternatively, if the formal complaint names the Principal as a Respondent, then the formal complaint shall be brought in writing to the Chair of the Board of Directors.

In either case, the person to whom the formal complaint is brought shall contact an investigator to undertake a confidential investigation of the complaint. For the term of this collective agreement, the parties agree that the investigator shall be chosen from among the following persons:

Where the investigator concludes that the findings of fact constitute a breach of this article or the provisions of the Human Rights Code, the School shall determine appropriate consequences with due regard to the nature of the conduct.

(c) Disciplinary action taken against the Respondent pursuant to this article shall not form the basis of a grievance.

(d) Where a complaint is determined by the Investigator to be of a frivolous, vindictive, malicious or vexatious nature, the School will take appropriate action which may include discipline, up to and including termination.

(e) The clause shall not preclude an employee from filing a complaint under the Human Rights Code. A complaint of sexual harassment or discrimination shall be dealt with solely by this article and shall not form the basis of a grievance.

The School or any person acting on its behalf shall not seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or any other kind of threat or promise or by threat of imposition of a penalty to compel or to induce an employee to refrain from:

- (b) the dismissal, discipline, suspension or significant increases to the workload of an employee bound by this agreement.

The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this article.

11.2 Step 1

The Union or the employee shall begin by attempting to resolve the grievance informally through discussions with the Administrator directly responsible. The request for informal resolution must be made in writing within 15 teaching days after the alleged violation, or the date when the grievor ought reasonably to have become aware of the alleged violation, whichever is later. Following receipt of such request, the parties will meet and attempt to resolve the grievance. Where the grievor is an employee, they may elect to be accompanied by a shop steward during any discussions held at this step.

11.3 Step 2

If the grievance is not resolved within 20 teaching days of the date the request was made for informal resolution at Step 1, the Union shall present the grievance in writing to the Principal within five days. The written grievance shall clearly set forth full particulars of the alleged violation, including the article(s) involved and the remedy sought. The Principal shall meet with the Union within 15 teaching days of receipt of the written grievance and shall issue a reply in writing within five days of that meeting.

If the Union does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, or the School fails to address a grievance at any step within the prescribed time limits, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned by the Union or conceded by the School, whichever party is in violation of the time limits. However, any grievance concluded in this manner shall not be deemed to have prejudiced the position of either party on any future grievance. Any grievance concluded in this manner shall be consistent with the terms of this agreement and if there is a dispute, the settlement shall be subject to review by an arbitrator.

11.7 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 12, the Union may inform the School of its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within 30 days. Alternatively, either party may apply for expedited arbitration pursuant to the Labour Relations Code.

11.8 Administrative Provisions

- (a) Notification to arbitrate may be delivered by fax or hand.
- (b) Grievances, replies and notification shall be deemed to be presented and received on the day they were delivered or faxed to the School or the Union.

The School agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the School's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.

11.10 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the School or the Union, as the case may be, within 60 days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 12 of this agreement.

11.11 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing. Any request for an extension of time limits shall not be unreasonably denied by the other party.

During the summer vacation, the periods set forth in this article shall read four calendar weeks instead of 20 teaching days.

In any case in which an arbitrator shall be required under this agreement, a single arbitrator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the parties. In the event that the parties are unable to agree on an arbitrator, the collective agreement Arbitration Bureau shall be requested to select the Arbitrator.

12.2 Arbitration Procedure

The Arbitrator may determine their own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall make every effort to render a decision within 30 days of the conclusion of the hearing.

The expenses of the Arbitrator and of the place of hearing shall be borne in equal shares by the Union and the School.

12.6 Expedited Arbitration

By mutual agreement, the parties may submit the dispute to an expedited arbitration process as mutually agreed by the parties.

12.7 Alternate Grievance Resolution Procedure

(a) The parties may mutually agree to the following procedure as an alternative to submitting matters of dispute to the formal arbitration procedure or an expedited arbitration procedure.

(b) If a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the collective agreement, John Kinzie or Chris Sullivan or a substitute agreed to by the parties, shall at the request of either party:

- (2) define the issue in the difference; and
- (3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference

within 30 days of the date of receipt of the request; and, for that 30 day period, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

(c) The parties agree that these hearings shall be conducted on a without prejudice basis and that the written recommendations of the third party shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.
