The same applies to employer grievances that are not presented to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits.

9.7 Time Limits to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, and pursuant to Article 10 (Arbitration), the Union President, or their designate, may inform the Employer of their intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration as set out in Article 10 (Arbitration).

To this end an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

9.13 Effective Date of Settlements

Settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure in this article, other than Clause 9.11, shall be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence of the action or situation which gave rise to the grievance, but not prior to the effective date of the agreement in effect at the time of the occurrence or the date set by a board of arbitration.
