ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.1 Grievance Procedure

Should a dispute arise respecting the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this Agreement, an earnest effort shall be made to settle the dispute in the following manner.

8.2 Step 1

Every effort shall be made by an employee and his/her immediate supervisor to resolve the issue verbally. An employee shall have the right to have his/her steward present at such a discussion. If unresolved, an employee may, within twenty-one (21) calendar days of first becoming aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance, submit a grievance in writing to the Employer's designate. The Employer's designate will sign and date the grievance form to confirm receipt.

Following such a meeting, the Employer's designate shall respond within ten (10) calendar days in writing to the Union's Area Representative.

8.4 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, the Union Area Representative may submit the grievance to arbitration within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the date of receipt of the Employer's Step 2 reply or the date it was due.

8.5 Policy Grievance

Either Party may submit a policy grievance respecting the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, within twenty-one (21) calendar days at arbitration pursuant to Article 9.1. In such instance a Step 2 reply is not required.

8.6 Time Limits

If a grievance is not initiated in accordance with the prescribed time limits, such grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned by the Union. However, the Union will not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance. Notwithstanding, the Parties may agree to extend time limits by mutual agreement.

8.7 Administrative Provisions

Grievances may be filed by hand delivery or other mutually agreeable means. Grievance replies shall be sent by registered mail, by hand delivery or courier. Written replies and notifications shall be deemed to be presented on the date which they are registered or accepted by a courier and received on the day they were delivered to the appropriate office.

8.8 Technical Objections

No grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an Arbitrator shall have the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute.

8.9 Deviation from the Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated at Step 1, no discussion will be entered into respecting the grievance with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.
- (b) In the event that, after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through another channel, the Union agrees the grievance shall be considered to be abandoned.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

9.1 Notification

Pursuant to Article 8.4, the Union Area Representative may submit a grievance to arbitration within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of the Employer's Step 2 response or of the date it was due by giving notice to the management of Absolute Traffic Control Ltd. of the Union's intent to arbitrate.

9.2 Pre-arbitration Meeting

The President of the Company or his/her designate shall meet with the Union Representative within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the Union's notice of intent to arbitrate.

The Parties will attempt to resolve the grievance, or alternatively explore common ground respecting the matter, and agree upon an Arbitrator as selected from the following list:

Barbara Bluman
Judy Korbin
Lynn Smith
Donna Gillis

Selection will be done on a rotational basis, according to availability.

9.3 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding, and enforceable on the Parties. The Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement deemed just and equitable. However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this Agreement by altering, modifying or amending any provision.

9.4 Time Limit for Decision

An Arbitrator shall render a written decision to the Parties within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the arbitration hearing is concluded. This time period may be altered by consent of the Parties.

9.5 Costs

The Parties to this Agreement shall jointly bear the cost of the Arbitrator and each of the Parties shall bear the cost of its own representatives and witnesses.

9.6 Expedited Arbitration

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree to utilize the mediation provisions of the relevant labour Act as an alternative dispute-resolving mechanism on a mediation/arbitration basis.

9.7 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties, but the same must be in writing.

ARTICLE 10 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE10.1 Right to Steward

- (a) An employee will be advised in advance of the subject or purpose of any meeting with the Employer which may be the basis of disciplinary action in order for the employee to contact a steward, and have the steward present if he/she feels it necessary.

10.2 Suspension or Discharge

In the event of a grievance arising from an employee's suspension or dismissal, the Employer agrees to notify the employee, in writing, setting out the grounds for the Employer's action. A copy of the notice will be sent to the Union's Area Office within five (5) calendar days. Grievances arising from suspension or dismissal, shall be filed at arbitration pursuant to Article 9.1 within fourteen (14) calendar days of the suspension or dismissal.

10.3 Probationary Period

- (a) Each new employee shall serve a probationary period of thirty (30) days worked from date of hire, during which time the Employer shall assess suitability for continued employment.
- (b) The Employer, during the probationary period, may release the employee for unsuitability for continued employment.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY11.1 Seniority Defined

- (a) The seniority date for an employee shall be the date that employee commenced employment with the Employer in each seniority block; except that probationary employees will not be entitled to exercise their seniority until they have successfully completed probation.
- (b) When two (2) or more employees have equal seniority the order of establishing their relative seniority will be determined by taking the last three (3) digits of the employee's social insurance number, in reverse order, the higher will be senior.

11.2 Seniority Blocks

- (a) Seniority blocks will be as follows:
 - (1) Lower Mainland
 - (2) Fraser Valley
- (b) The boundary between the two (2) seniority blocks will be the Surrey/Langley border.
- (c) The Employer agrees to dispatch work that becomes available within the geographic boundaries of the seniority block to employees in order of their seniority. It is understood that an employee may register for work in any seniority block for which they are qualified. Seniority commences with the start of work date in each block, however, it is understood that travel and other allowance costs will not be increased to the Employer from that of a local hire.

(d) Any employee may decline dispatch to a job which is more than twenty-five (25) kilometres away from his/her residence. This decline will not preclude any employee from being dispatched to other work on the same day.

11.3 Seniority Lists

Upon request, the Employer shall supply a seniority list to employees.

11.4 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose his/her seniority in the event that:

- (a) he/she is terminated for cause;
- (b) he/she voluntarily terminates his/her position;
- (c) he/she is not recalled for a work assignment in a twelve (12) month period.
- (d) An employee on a claim recognized by the Workers' Compensation Board shall be credited with service seniority and will be reinstated to his/her former position upon recovery.

ARTICLE 12 - PROMOTIONS AND VACANCIES

12.1 Vacant Positions

When a position becomes vacant, the Employer will post the vacancy for a minimum of seven (7) days. Due to the nature of the business and lack of a regular point of assembly that can be used to post vacancies, postings will be distributed in conjunction with an employee's pay.

12.2 Information in Postings

The posting will contain the wage rate and the requirements of the position as agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

12.3 Appointment Policy

Positions will be awarded to the most senior applicant that meets the requirements as set forth in the posting.

12.4 Interview Expenses

Candidates for a position shall be granted leave of absence with current pay as required for any interview. The applicant will, upon pre-approval, have his/her travelling, accommodation and meal expenses paid.

12.5 Trial Period

Where a bargaining unit employee is promoted, he/she will be placed on trial for a period of thirty (30) days worked and upon satisfactory completion of the trial period will be confirmed in the position, in writing, by the Employer. If an employee is unable to perform the duties of the new position, he/she will be returned to the former position held. Any other employee(s) transferred or promoted as a result of the original job posting will also be returned to their former status.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL13.1 Role of Seniority in Layoff

(a) In the event of a layoff, employees will be laid off by reverse seniority within a seniority block. The Employer shall give the employee as much advance notice as possible. More senior employees may opt to be laid off before junior employees.

13.2 Recall of Employees

Recall of employees from the recall list will be in order of seniority in the following sequence:

- (1) senior qualified employee from within the seniority block;
- (2) senior qualified employee from an adjacent seniority block.

13.3 Declining a Recall

It is expected that employees will not unreasonably decline work within their seniority block or other blocks to which they are registered. Accordingly, where an employee declines work on more than three (3) occasions in a calendar year without reasonable excuse, he/she will be dropped to the bottom of the seniority list by assigning him/her a new hire date. The new date shall be the date of the third decline. Reasonable excuses shall be as follows:

- (a) on leave pursuant to Article 20;
- (b) absence due to a WCB claim;
- (c) illness; proof of illness will be required if the absence is greater than three (3) days or where it appears a pattern of consistent or frequent absence is developing;
- (d) illness of a dependent child of an employee, where no one other than the employee can care for the child. Proof of illness may be required if a pattern of consistent absence is developing. Such leave will not exceed two (2) days;
- (e) Union leave per Article 2.4;
- (f) jury duty;
- (g) medical or dental appointments. Proof will be required; or
- (h) where the job site is more than twenty-five kilometres away from his/her residence.

Where the employee notifies the dispatcher in advance that he/she is unavailable, such unavailability will not count as a decline. It is understood that an employee may limit his/her availability to any classification for which he/she is qualified.

To be counted as a decline, personal contact should have occurred, however, where an employee cannot be reached at his/her usual phone number within a twenty-four (24) hour period, the Employer is entitled to assume he/she is unavailable and record a decline by writing to the employee. A minimum of three (3) calls, reasonably spaced will be attempted. The Employer agrees to refrain from calling after 9:00 p.m. except in an emergency.

13.4 Relocations of a Temporary Nature

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside his/her regular seniority block except by mutual agreement and provided there is no employee eligible for recall, pursuant to Article 13.2 above. Except for employees who register for work in another seniority block or those who agree to accept recall in an adjacent seniority block, employees who are transferred outside their normal seniority block will have all necessary expenses such as meals and travel paid for by the Employer. Where relocation requires an overnight stay, the Employer will pay for the necessary accommodation.
